The Krabba

HAMPTON HIGH SCHOOL

47

Foreword

There is no time in a person's life which is more cherished than his days in high school. To help remember the happy experiences, the old friends, the favorite spots around school, and to hold high always the ideals inculcated here, we, the Krabba Staff of 1947, use as the theme of our annual, "Life Around Hampton High."

DEDICATION

For the years of service and guidance he has rendered to Hampton High School and the interest he has shown in us all, it is with the greatest pleasure and gratitude that we, the senior class of 1947, dedicate our Krabba to

CLASS HISTORY '47

As the doors of Hampton High School opened on the morning of September 6, 1943, they opened not only to those returning to complete their final year but to a group of wide-eyed and enthusiastic boys and girls who were for the first time entering High School. That hopeful group is the graduating class of 1947.

We had scarcely gotten situated when we found ourselves witnessing our first football game and cheering for the red and white. Much thrill and excitement came with Christmas holidays followed by important tests in January after which we advanced a mere half step. We were pleased, yet amazed, to know we were already educated "Rats". Basketball season passed and it was Spring. It thrilled us to see our superiors perform in the school plays but soon all the thrills were behind and we entered into our long awaited summer vacation.

When we entered school on September 6, 1944 things seemed different. We were sophomores and felt proud to be upper-classmen. We gazed with a feeling of superiority upon the faces of the lovely rats.

Football and basketball seasons were just a memory and spring brought a few days we could call our own, known as Easter holidays. Returning from these few peaceful days we engaged in exams. Sophomore days were over and summer vacation at last.

We were greeted on September 8, 1945 with the opening of school and felt quite important now that we were finally Juniors. Flood-lights had been installed on the athletic field so with the coming of football season we enjoyed night games for the first time. Returning from Christmas holidays we soon entered into the second half of our Junior year.

The class chose the following officers, President, Bobby Smith, Vice-President, J. B. Neal, and Secretary and Treasurer, Lillian Vaughan. Spring brought an epidemic of spring fever, but we cheered up as time drew near, for the main social event, the Junior-Senior Prom. This was soon just a happy memory and our Junior days were over.

When we re-entered school after summer vacation, we were brought face to face with the realization that we were Seniors and must act as such.

We thoroughly enjoyed the football season because many boys of our class represented us on the gridiron. The band with their newly acquired uniforms added much color to these exciting events. Christmas holidays flew by and orders were taken for class rings. Basketball was behind us and sign of spring began to show. The class chose as their officers, President, Albert Moberg, Vice-President, Lon Hicks and Secretary-Treasurer, Lois Sneed. These proved to be worthy of the task we placed upon them. We had previously been measured for caps and gowns and the echo was still clear of boys boasting on the measurements of their so-called "he-man" chests. Senior invitations were ordered, pictures taken and all important details checked. The Junior-Senior prom was much enjoyed by all and now our entire school life was drawing to a close.

As our days as Seniors come to a close we look back on the accomplishments and improvements that we have seen during our four years spent here. We have witnessed the end of the war having had the joy of seeing many of our classmates return. We have also aided in the organization of the Student Co-operative Association which has made many improvements for the student body of Hampton High.

To many, graduation is a happy occasion, to others a sad one, but whatever our feeling we know this is just our foundation for the good we must go forward to meet. Long will we remember our high school days at Hampton High School.

J. B. Neal,
Historian

CLASS PROPHECY '47

As the train I was on passed through Newport News, the suburbs of the now thriving metropolis of Hampton, a wave of excitement came over me. It had been twenty years since I last saw the old town and my dear alma mater, Hampton High School. My, how that place had changed!

I began tidying myself up a bit, as traveling the "rods" was very dirty, not like the clean travel of 1950. As the train pulled into the freight yard, I jumped off, right in the arms of "John Law!" Bobby Harrell, now an employee with the Hampton and Points Elsewhere railroad gave me a break and told me to watch my step, as the city's police department, headed by Chief Robert Carroll, was very tough on vagrants.

Taking heed to his information, I made my way toward the business district. Several taxi cabs passed with the name "Levin's Hack" printed on the side. That name sounded very familiar, and on inquiring found that they belong to Joseph Levin, an old classmate. His rates were very cheap! Three dollars a mile!

Still walking and taking in the old and new sights of the city, I bumped squarely into a street cleaner busy at his work. On apologizing, I saw it was Bobby Smith. I always knew that boy would go places!

Continuing toward the main street, a crowd walking in front of the City Court drew my attention. Walking over, I overheard the conversation among several reporters, Pat Wise, brilliant journalist for the "Seaport Slander", Benjamin Smith, who was "cub" for the "Daily Blow" and Lois Sneed representing the "Evening Chatter". They were discussing the case of Tommy Boggs, Hampton's leading P-Nut vender vs. James Carey. From what I understood, Carey ran off with a bag of Boggs' best P-Nuts, but was brought to justice by the mighty hand of Officer Donald "Always Gets His Man" Taylor. Presiding over the case was the honary, I mean honorable Charles Andrew Cole, Jr., leading judge in the state.

Anxious to find more of my old classmates, I continued my trek on to the main "drag", which I found to be "Woodfin Avenue" named for the city's first woman mayor, Frances G. Woodfin. Yes, I figured she could talk her way into anything.

Music came to my ears. Turning, I found the H. H. S. band marching up the avenue. Celebrating a football victory no doubt! The band was led by its director, Miss Anne Putnam. A by-stander mentioned something about the high school's fifteenth straight football victory over the "Breeze" of Newport News high. Jack Hill's son, that is, one of the ten, "little Sookie III", was star of the game. Hill's wife was before her marriage, Mazie Lee Benthall. I knew he would fall sooner or later!

The Hampton team was coached by J. C. Cockrell of Apprentice fame. Cockrell's assistant was Hunter "Hunkie" Tignor.

I bought a copy of the "Seaport Slander" from Bobby Goodman, the paper's star carrier and strolled over to Moberg Park to read it. The park was named for Al Moberg, president of our great country. In his political campaign, Moberg's slogan was "Vote for Honest Al, the Citizen's Pal." His manager was Cullen Tawes.

Opening the paper an article about the Reverend Daniel Bennett's speech to the "Lonely Hearts" Society caught my eye. President of the society was Mary Sheffield. A few of her colleagues were Hettie Tisdale, Matilda James, Sylvia Damsky and Claire Batzold, who finally lost her love battle with Martha Stack over that fellow Mike Ely. Miss Stack married Ely who is now a seaman in the U. S. Navy. Oh! The "Lonely Hearts" is an old maid organization.

Turning next to the sports page, I found that Warren Brushwood, great golf pro, broke an old course record with a 63. Never has anybody before taken that many strokes for one hole. Caddying for Brushwood was his wife, ex-burlesque queen, Anne Page Lawson

The Society page was next to attract my attention with the marriage of Miss Mary Bryan Collier to Mr. John Lawrence Thomas for the fourth time highlighting the "cream of the crop" section. It seems as though their marriages never work, but the both of them say this one will last. The newlyweds are planning to honeymoon at Nancy Tennis' famous seaside resort in Phoebus, which is managed by Rosmary Barba.

A siren rose above the clamor of the city's noises. Never one to miss excitement, I rushed to the street just as three fire trucks whizzed by. In the leading truck Fire Chief Billy Renn was at the wheel. Some of the firemen hanging desperately on to the truck were Jack Adams, Jerry Marple, Charles Hopcraft, Harry Thomas and Herman Bessard. Hurrying down the street to locate the fire, I found that it was Mrs. Martha Scott Torian's "How to Henpeck Your Husband", school on fire. Mrs. Martha Hayward Liberty, Mrs. Beverly Timberlake Firth, Mrs. Betty Chapman Jester and Mrs. Nan Gilbert Sherouse, a few of Mrs. Torian's star pupils, looked very perturbed over the incident. I also saw quite a few husbands bribing the fire chief.

Leaving the fire, I ambled on down the street in search of a nice restaurant so I could acquire a bite to eat. A sign which read "For The City's Best Meals, Come Down to Eat at J. B. Neal's" caught at my eye. So I went on to J. B.'s "joint". My meal was very good—that is, if it was food! His waitresses did much for the place. They were Mary Nickell, Pat Johnson and Jean Roberts! J. B. also had a first rate dishwasher in Elmer Shirk. Elmer told me the job had very good possibilities as he had just been there five years and had already been promoted from "floor scrubber" to his present position. See what brains can do for you!

Taking leave of J. B.'s fine restaurant, I strolled on until I came to the "Royal Palace", the city's finest theater owned by Bob Schabacker and managed by Tom Robinson. The production playing was "I Love You, Are You Crazy Too?" written by Yvonne Burch, noted playwright. Starring in the show are Joanne Cumisky, "the nation's number one 'oomph' girl" and Billy "Mammy Roy" Drummond. The play was in its first week and still going strong!

Going next door to get a coke in "Bubba's Billiard Parlor", owned by Billy Barham, who did I see working behind the bar, but "Snooky" Johnson. While watching a game between the proprietor and Scotty "eightball" Cowherd, several "hustlers" walked into the room. They were Billy "cuestick" Peake, David "Scratch" Burbank and Ward "Chalk" Covington. Barham had Joan Cunningham and Norma Massie employed as 'rackers'. Shining shoes in the parlor was Richard Brown.

The city's biggest night club was the "Langley Roof Garden" run by Alan Snyder. I walked over to get a closer look and saw Thomas "Hot Licks" Waddell and his band of merrymakers. Featured vocalist was Jean Carol Roberts, who was booked for that week. The Garden's chorus girls were Jean Bangs, Marjorie Baker, Carolyn Hudgins, Eleanor Pair, and Beryl Woolridge. While glancing over the pictures, a fellow who turned out to be Jay Robinson asked me to stake him to a meal. I told him that I would have been more than glad to, but things weren't going so good with me either! Jay used to collect old cigar and cigarette "butts" and sell them. (A good business, too), but it seems as though Anne Ruggles and Martha Garber had him run out of business.

Hearing the distant whistle of the evening train, I knew it was time for me to hit the road. Happy at seeing many of my old friends carrying on their life work in true H. H. S. spirit and tradition, I left the city with much happiness in my heart! Other classmates, who have not been mentioned were happy at their work, also (!)

CLASS POEM '47

We entered through the high school gate,
(We Freshman knew not of our fate)
We had to carry seniors books
We learned to bear their dirty looks,
We bowed and knelt when they came 'round
To do their bidding we were bound,
We did boys homework, curled girls hair
Cuz we were just the Freshman there.
The next year we began to grow—
And we knew all there was to know
We called the seniors by their name,
And really we were gaining fame;
But we'll admit it gave much glee
To say "A senior spoke to me!"
No, never did we do the chores
Cuz we were stately Sophomores! !
Then came our third year-what a fuss
Those lower dared not speak to us.
We never had to hide in shame
Cuz everyone had heard our name.
No more did we cry and fret.
We'd frosh saw us — grew stiff with fear
And that was in our Junior year.
But now at last we've made the grade
We've made the class for which we prayed
Frosh hide behind their history books
Just to evade our dirty looks
To prove we're kind we say "hello"
To waiting, anxious, Soph-a-mo'-
But all the Juniors we do hate
They're dyin' for us to graduate
So they can come and take our place
So they can wear our Senior lace.
But while we're here they'll scrape and bow
Cuz we're the mighty Seniors now!

THE DEBATING CLUB OF HAMPTON HIGH SCHOOL

The Debating Club is composed of those students interested in debating, who have satisfactory scholarship and citizenship records.

The Club was organized March 17, 1945 by Mrs. Kathryn Pace Cameron and Mrs. Marguerite S. Benthall of the faculty. It was founded as a result of the interest of various students in some of Mrs. Cameron's classes, who asked for such a club.

The Debating Club is divided into three groups, each headed by a chairman, who takes turns in planning the programs for the club meetings. Ann Ruggles is the chairman of the public speaking group, Sylvia Damsky heads the round table discussion group, and Ann Darling is chairman of the debating group.

The main purpose of the club is to further the knowledge of debating, and to promote its educational value through group discussions and actual participation in debates.

HAMPTON HIGH SCHOOL BAND

The Band started out the new school year by electing officers:

President	J. B. NEAL
Vice-President	FLOYD BRUCE
Secretary	ANN PARKINSON
Treasurer	LYNN HAWKINS

During the summer we were given a brand new Martin Freres oboe which was played by Ann Parkinson.

The marching band was organized in September with Donald Sherouse as our drum major. We had hoped to get our uniforms in time for the games but due to the wars and shortages of materials we had to march in the old uniforms. We played for all the home games. We were given trips to Norfolk and Portsmouth with the football team when Hampton played against Maury and Wilson. An honor was bestowed upon us when we were asked to march at the Oyster Bowl game in Norfolk, December 7, Pearl Harbor Day. Our Band formed a cross and played "Onward Christian Soldiers" in honor of the boys who died in the war. After the football season the band and the teams were entertained with a dance by the Lions' Club and movies at the Langley Theater.

After the football season the concert band started rehearsals and played for the fall play. Our badly needed uniforms came in time for our winter concert, January 21st. Then the public saw our new uniforms and our concert was the most successful ever given at Hampton.

In February, Hampton was represented with four students in the All-State Band. These were Erdman Palmore, Flute; Lynn Hawkins and Charles Gilliam, Clarinets and Dorothy Parkinson, Horn.

One night, the last of February, a surprise party was given the band by Miss Hite and Mr. Horstmann, who made our elevations for the concert, was the guest.

All year the band had been preparing for the State music Festival and on March 22nd, a little nervous, but raring to go, we put on our uniforms and went to Norfolk. We entered unclassified and received excellent comments from the judges on our numbers, "Horizon" by Buys and "If Thou Be Near" by Bach.

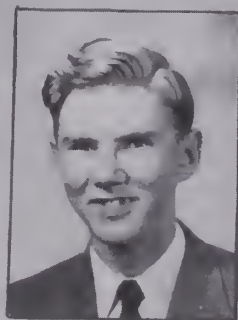

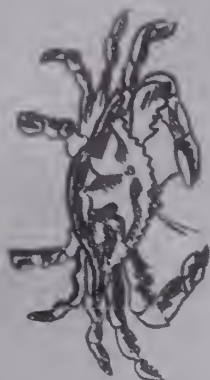

On May 9th we entertained the Lions' Club with some selections in appreciation for all they have done for us this year. They paid expenses for the state festivals, bought a uniform for Miss Hite, and helped in many other ways especially offering us moral support.

Also this year the Band has played for some assemblies and gave an entire assembly program in April.

The American Legion also asked us to play for them.

To top off a successful year, with hopes for a more successful '47 and '48 we held a formal banquet at which the pins, medals, and letters were awarded and the plaque presented to the outstanding student in the band. Our main guest was Mr. W. A. Bowers, Jr., president of the Hampton Lions' Club.

The Hampton High School chapter of the National Honor Society was organized on April 2, 1947 with thirty-one charter members. The organization was formed through the efforts of the S. C. A. On April 29, 1947 the chapter was formally installed by the Newport News High School Chapter in an assembly before the student body.

The charter members are members of the 1947 Senior class who are in the highest fifteen per cent of the class scholastically and meet the other qualifications of character, service and leadership.

THE SOCIAL GUIDANCE COMMITTEE

The Social Guidance Committee is an outgrowth of the S. C. A. Seeing a need for more planned recreation for the student body, this committee was appointed to work with a faculty committee as advisors.

The committee has sponsored several dances this year which were attended by many of the students. Plans for the future are being made with an eye to a more varied program of recreation within the school.

GARRICK DRAMATICS CLUB

The Garrick Dramatics Club of Hampton High School is composed of those students with satisfactory scholarship, who are interested in dramatics and participate in school activities.

This club was founded April 15, 1932 by Mrs. Kathryn Pace Cameron, Mrs. Margaret Patrick Wood, and Mr. R. E. T. Lewis. Afterwards Mr. Luther W. Machen became the stage director. The Dramatics Club derived its name from David Garrick, a well known English actor of the Eighteenth Century.

Through the support of the student body and faculty, the Garrick Dramatics Club has produced many successful plays, among which are: "Early To Bed", "The Late Christopher Bean", "Junior Miss", "Best Foot Forward", "Moonlight for Herbert," and "Snafu".

This year, as its fall production, the club selected "Arsenic and Old Lace", a recent Broadway hit by Joseph Kesselring.

The club was again fortunate in having Mrs. John Parkinson as dramatic director. Mr. Otto C. Horstmann was stage manager, and Miss Mary E. Clynes was business manager.

Members of the cast were Ann Curtis, Belver Griffith, Johnny Hopkins, Floyd Bruce, Donald Sherouse, Ann Darling, Jerry Helton, Hugh DeSamper, Bob Chappell, Charles Cole, Jerry Marple, Garrett Leonard, Garrett Rusmissele and Charles Baker.

The student director was Donald Taylor, and the student business manager was Lois Sneed. Rosemary Barba served as typist.

The publicity manager, Mary Bryan Collier, was assisted by June Spain, Frances Woodfin, Doris Jones, and Conrad Drexel.

Miss Doris Huffer assisted as faculty advisor of properties. Phyllis Tyree was manager of properties and her assistants were: Marie Zatticco, June Keithley, Richard Offringa, and Betty Speegle.

The manager of make-up was Ada Meador, and she was assisted by Joan Cunningham, Mary Sheffield, Charlotte Carpenter, Barbara White, and Jean Baker.

Jean Stinneford was mistress of wardrobe, and she had as her assistants:—Betty Roberts, Ray Crockett, and Richard Brown.

The poster manager was Ann Ledbetter, assisted by Dorothy Thompson, Sue Bentley, Irene McLean and Charles Gilliam.

Dorothy Parkinson served as prompter and the sound effects were due to Paul Hierholzer.

The following served on the stage: manager, Earl Andleton, electrician, Donald Sherouse, carpenter, Ralph Siervers, and engineer, Steve Colosi.

The house manager was Cullen Tawes and the ushers were Erdman Pahnore, Andy Becouvarakis, Gilbert Firth, Albert Moberg, and Jack Adams.

"The Barretts of Wimpole Street" by Rudolf Besier was chosen for the spring play. Mrs. John Parkinson was again the dramatic director and Anne Ruggles was the student director. The cast includes Joanne Cumiskey, Mike Ely, Charles Cole, Yvonne Burch, Frances Woodfin, Dot Piskur, John Smythe, Ann Curtis, Joe Mark, Bobby Harrell, Conley Smith, Floyd Bruce, Howard Tall, Paul Hierholzer, Tommy Edmonds and Jerry Marple.

OUR COACH

The year 1940 was a lucky year for Hampton High School, as James "Suey" Eason took over the head coaching reigns at the Crabtown Institution. Being considered the best coach in schoolboy circles throughout the state, "Suey" has compiled a record which is exceptional for his six years at Hampton.

His record stands as 35 wins, 21 losses, and 8 ties. "Suey's" best year thus far was in 1942, when his team ran away with the football honors in the state. Coach believes this was the best high school team he has ever coached, however his 1946 team was considered tops!

James "Suey" Eason or just "Coach," as he is known to everyone, is an alumnus of the College of William and Mary where he was a star in every sport he participated in from 1924-1928. He is a member of the All-Time William & Mary football team, an honor which is bestowed upon very few of the great players the Williamsburg school turns out. In baseball, he is still remembered as the slugger who twice knocked home runs to beat Yale two times in successive years and the guy who slugged the cover off the ol' horsehide to turn many an "Indian" defeat into victory.

Upon graduation, "Coach" went to Crewe High School in Crewe, Virginia to take over the coaching job there. In his twelve years at this school "Suey" compiled the amazing record of having been defeated eleven times. Being only a Class "C" school he had little to work with but after a few seasons "Suey's" teams were a threat to every Class "A" high school in the state. While there, he built up the reputation as the coach who always turns out a "Fightin' team".

This reputation he brought to Hampton in 1940 and in his stay here, he has raised the "Crabbers" fighting spirit to a peak which could never be topped. Although his teams are not always "world-beaters," they are always in the ball game and never a "breather."

Not only to his "boys" is he tops, but to all students of Hampton High as well.

VARSITY CLUB

The Varsity Club of Hampton High School was organized in the spring of 1945 with its purpose aimed at furthering good sportsmanship among the boys. Only boys earning a letter in a major sport are qualified for membership.

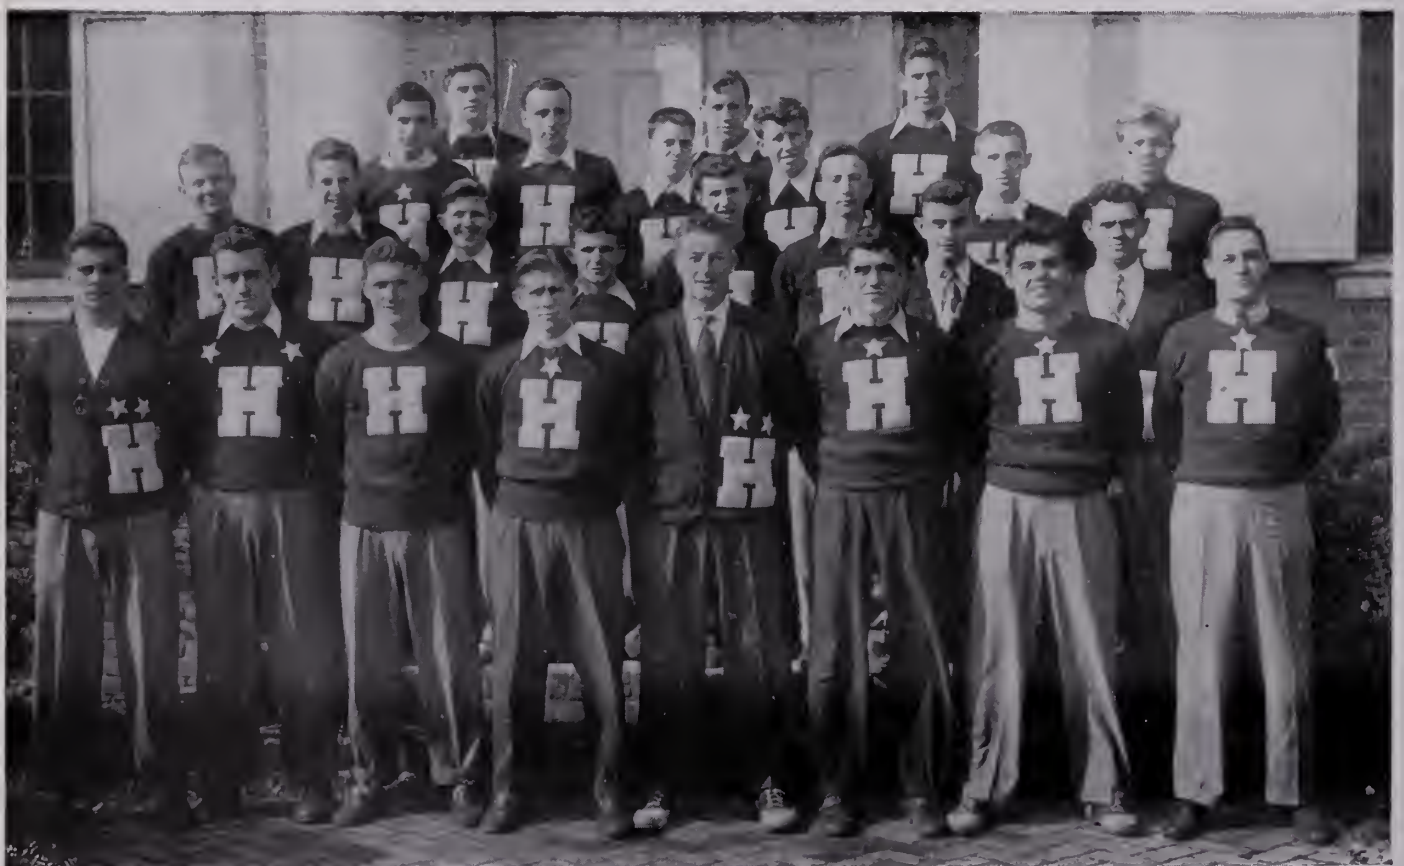

The club has presented the school with the new trophy case and also a picture of the faculty which hangs in the hall. The club has also donated $100 dollars to each of the civic clubs of Hampton to help their campaign for under privileged children.

Two of the most popular yells this year were:

Two bits, four bits,
Six bits, a dollar
All good Crabbers
Stand up and holler

Touchdown, Touchdown
Touchdown boys,
You make the touchdown
We'll make the noise
With a hy-de-hy
And a ho-de-ho
Come on boys.
Get a goal

This year the cheerleaders gave their all and they added much color and spirit to a successful football season.

The 1946 edition of the Hampton "Crabbers" opened their season successfully by trouncing a game, but weak opponent, Holy Trinity of Norfolk 50-0. Working with clock-like precision the eleven from "Crabtown" took command in the very early stages of the contest and quickly turned the affair into a rout. Coach "Suey" Eason used his full squad in the slaughter, with his first team playing less than half the game. "Speedy" Tommy Edmonds was the "big gun" in the "Crabber" attack by scoring twice and tossing to end Dick Carneal for another tally. Johnny Thomas, Joe Mark, Burleigh Harwood, Jim Carey and Sydney Moore completed the Hampton scoring for the night. Along with Edmonds, Jim Carey and Burleigh Harwood were constant threats with their repeatedly fine performances of broken-field running. Sydney Moore, reserve guard, intercepted a "Trinityite" pass and scooted 35 yards for a score. Moore and Larry Crockett were the stalwarts in the "Crabber" front wall by consistently breaking through and throwing the Holy Trinity offensive into reverse.

HAMPTON 20

MAURY 7

Travelling across Hampton Roads to engage the Maury Commodores in their first real test of the young season, Coach "Suey" Eason's boys gave the Norfolk eleven a real going over to the tune of 20-7. Being heavily outweighed, the small but potent "Crabbers" went right to work after the opening kick-off and before the end of the first quarter had managed to cross the "Commodore" goal line. The first score came as a result of a long pass from Thomas to Co-Captain Carroll in the end zone. At the opening of the second period, the Maury eleven, not to be out done, pushed across a counter with Big Billy Ranier carrying the ball and Jim Tarpley booting the extra-point to put Maury ahead 7-6, but not for long. This only seemed to infuriate the "Crabbers" as they came marching right back down the field with Edmonds, Baber, Harwood and Thomas alternating in taking the mail with Johnny Thomas crossing the last stripe and Co-Captain Mark kicking the goal to put the "fightin' Crabbers" out in front never to be headed again. In the closing minutes of the first half, Thomas heaved an aerial to end Dick Carneal who scampered into the end zone with Thomas booting the point to end the scoring for the night with the Crabtown boys out in front 20-7. The rest of the battle was a nip and tuck affair with both teams threatening to score once more, only to be denied by the opponents onrushing line play. The great play of the "Crabber" forward wall was the difference between the two teams. "Piggy" Baber was the offensive threat of the "Crabbers" by repeatedly reeling off long gains to keep the Commodores on the defensive most of the contest.

Bringing one of the strongest Prep school teams in the state to Crabtown, the "Preppers" from Richmond met a far superior Hampton eleven and fell before the power and deception of the "Crabbers" 21-0. In gaining their third straight victory, the powerful Hampton line limited the supposedly non-stoppable Cadets to a mere 17 yards rushing where as the "Crabbers" gained 273 yards. The "Crabbers" started like a ball of fire from the opening whistle, driving to within the Benedictine 5 yard line twice during the first period without having the final punch to score. Early in the second period however with Thomas, Carneal and Edmonds sharing the spotlight, the "Crabbers" went all the way with Thomas crossing into paydirt. Scoring ceased again until the third period when Carneal romped into the end zone after a dazzling exhibition of broken field running. Dandy Dick tallied again in the fourth to end the scoring for the night. Quarterback Thomas and wingback Carneal were the main cogs in the "Crabber" machine with Phil Fuller and Calvin Rhea adding the most punch up front, although the whole line played an exceptionally fine game. The spectacular punt returns of Tommy Edmonds sent the crowd to their feet screaming several times as he nearly broke into the clear. Co-Captain Joe Mark added three extra points for a perfect night.

Journeying to Alexandria to engage the George Washington "Presidents" on their second road trip, the "Crabbers" made it four straight with a hard earned 20-7 victory. The lads from G. W. started like a ball of fire and right after the opening kick off jumped into a 7-0 lead to stay in front during the first quarter. Shortly after the second period was under way, the "Crabbers" picked up steam and marched 92 yards to their first score with Edmonds, Thomas and Baber bearing the brunt of the attack. Thomas crashed over for the tally with Mark knotting the count with a perfect placement. Early during the third stanza, Jack "Sooky" Hill, the "Crabbers" flashy center, intercepted a G. W. pass on the "Presidents" 32 and displayed some fancy running only to be stopped on the 8. However, on the next play, Tom Edmonds, the "Crabbers" scatback crossed into paydirt to score standing up. After this, the ball game was all Hampton with Johnny Thomas, Hampton's ace quarterback counting the last marker for his second TD of the night. Calvin Rhea and Bobby Carroll were the stalwarts in the "Crabber" line.

THOMAS JEFFERSON 0

The "Crabbers", outweighed nearly twenty pounds to the man, handed the Thomas Jefferson eleven from Richmond a sound 20-0 beating to run their win streak to five straight. For the first time of the season, the "fightin' crew" from Hampton had trouble gaining on the ground, but the reliable arm of quarterback John Thomas and the clutching fingers of Dick Carneal provided the margin of victory. The first score of the game came when the "Crabbers" on their own 49 yard line sent Thomas back to uncork an aerial which fell into the ever faithful arms of Carneal on the Jeffs 15, from where he ambled over. Capitalizing on a TJ fumble in the second quarter, the "Crabbers" got their second score with Thomas making the tally. During the third quarter, the Jeffs tightened and the period went scoreless, but a 13 point lead was not big enough for the Crabtown eleven, so Thomas dropped back behind the perfect protection of his granite line and tossed an aerial to Carneal who scored. The play climaxed a drive of 55 yards. At no time during the game did the Jeffs ever threaten. Captain Bill Myer bore the brunt of the TJ attack. Up there in the "Crabber" frontwall Hunter Tignor was like a block granite.

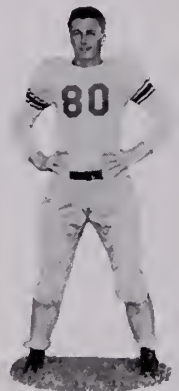

HAMPTON 38

GEORGE WASHINGTON OF DANVILLE 6

Making it six straight, the Hampton "Crabbers" literally set fire to the Darling Memorial gridiron as they routed the Redbirds of Danville 38-6. The Hampton line held the George Washington eleven to a miserable 19 yards. Their lone score coming at the hands of the second and third stringers. Playing before a large "Mother and Father Night" crowd, the Crabbers really gave their parents a treat. Thomas, Edmonds, Carneal and Carroll were the big guns of the Crabber offensive.

Cal Rhea and Jack Hill played a bang-up game in the "Crabber" forward wall. Rhea's downfield blocking and Hill's superb line backing were large factors in the rout. Scoring touchdowns for the "Crabbers" were Thomas and Carroll who scored two each and Carneal and Mark one a piece. Jack Mowbray scored for the outclassed "Redbirds" and was the best the losers had to offer.

ANDREW LEWIS OF SALEM 0

A strong and previously unbeaten eleven from Salem invaded Darling Memorial Stadium where the powerful "Crabbers" ran their win streak to seven straight by lacing the Wolverines of Andrew Lewis by a count of 26-0. With the game less than five minutes old, quarterback Thomas crashed over from the one and from that time on it was all Hampton. Before the close of the half, Thomas faded and tossed a 35 yard aerial into the waiting arms of Co-Captain Bobby Carroll who did some nifty ball carrying to cross into paydirt. Tommy Edmonds, "Crabber" scatback, scored the third marker for the Hampton eleven after having torn the Salem line to shreds with the able assistance of "Dandy Dick" Carneal and speedy Burleigh Harwood. Dickie Bunting, Salem's small triple-threat, was putting on a one man show for the "Wolverines", but was not enough alone to cross the "Crabber" goal line. Thomas closed out the scoring by plunging over from the two just before the games end. "Fireman Billy" Renn, utility man for the "Crabbers", was the fifth man in the Salem backfield all night. For the "Wolverines", tackle Hub St. John broke through repeatedly to toss the swift Hampton backs for large losses.

The Hampton eleven traveled to Portsmouth seeking its eighth straight win, only to be denied by a highly-touted Woodrow Wilson team. Coming from behind in the last two minutes of play, the "Crabbers" received a hard-earned 13-13 tie with the powerful "Presidents". The first half went scoreless with Hampton being on the defensive most of the time as a result of Billy Faris' long punt returns of Carneal's booming kicks. Being out-weighted nearly twenty pounds to the man, the small but gallant "Crabber" line put up a whale of a game against overwhelming odds. The Wilson team broke ice in the third quarter capitalizing on a "Crabber" fumble and went ahead 7-0. Faris scored on a 20-yard jaunt. Hampton retaliated immediately and Thomas scored from the one to top off a 65 yard drive. Again in the third quarter, the "Presidents" with Borum Wilson's largest ground gainer, trekking 19 yards to score forged ahead 13-7. The fourth quarter went nip and tuck until the last two minutes when the "Crabbers" caught fire and marched 84 yards to the tying score, as Carneal made a beautiful catch of one of quarterback Thomas' heaves. Center Jack "Sooky" Hill's line backing was superb as he time and again stopped the power thrusts of the Wilson eleven. Offensively, Tommy Edmonds and Johnny Thomas were "tops" for the battered and bruised, but gallant band of "Crabbers".

E. C. GLASS OF LYNCHBURG 28

In their closing conference game, the Hampton "Crabbers" met their first taste of defeat at the hands of the powerful "Hill Toppers" of E.C. Glass High in Lynchburg. This defeat was the first in nine starts for the Crabtown boys. The "Crabbers" took the initial kick-off and drove 75 yards for the first score with Thomas plunging into the end zone. Everyone thought the game would quickly turn into a rout, but Lynchburg took the kickoff and on a sustained drive knotted the count at 7 all. The boys from the "Hilltop" city were just too powerful for the "fightin' Crabbers", outweighing them nearly 20 pounds to the man, as they pushed across two more touchdowns before the half ended 21-7.

NORVIEW 13

One of the best teams in H. H. S. history closed their season with a sound 45-13 victory over a weak but game Norview High of Norfolk. This game ended the scholastic football careers of seventeen "Crabber" gridders who had donned the high school "moleskins" for the last time. The "Crabbers" went right to work in the first quarter by scoring three times with Thomas and Baber taking the pigskin across. After the opening of the second period, the "Pilots" of Norview drew blood to get back in the ball game, but only for a short time. After Edmonds ran the kickoff back 43 yards; the hometown boys were in once more, with Jack "Sooky" Hill scoring his first touchdown after 4 years of varsity ball playing. Again in the third quarter the "Crabbers" opened up with Carneal, Carey and Harwood having the honors of crossing the last marker. Norview's Callum tallied in the fourth to end the day's scoring. Two "Crabber" scatbacks, Tommy Edmonds and Tommy Boggs kept the crowd on edge with their many long runs deep into enemy territory. Defensively the whole "Crabber" forward wall played a fine game.

SUMMARY

The 1946-47 "Crabber" basketball team opened their season in the small Hampton gym before an overflow crowd against Woodrow Wilson of Portsmouth only to be denied victory in the last 30 seconds, losing 27-26. The Hampton five was very green but made a fine showing.

For the next conference game, Hampton traveled to Granby only to fall before the power and uneasy marksmanship of the Norfolk basketceers, 60-35.

In a day game played at Langley Field, the "Crabbers" broke into the win column by defeating the Officers 35-33. Making it two in a row the "Hardwood" boys of Hampton won a thriller from Thomas Jefferson of Richmond, 35-31. Coming from behind the "Crabbers" overtook and went on to victory, in the last minute of play. Thomas Jefferson went on to win the Central District Championship.

Maury invaded Hampton next and the "Crabbers" fell before the "Commodores" 45-25. The height of the Maury five had much to do with the decisive victory.

• On their Western trip of the season, the "Crabbers" first met the J. V. team of Hampden-Sydney and were set back by the collegians, 45-35. Trailing by twenty points at the half, the local lads completely outelassed the home team the last half. Salem, being the next game on the trip, defeated the "Crabbers" 62-25. Four games in one week proved too much for Hampton, as in this game the boys showed the strain.

Hopewell invaded the "bandbox" the following week and the "Crabbers" hit their stride by laeing the "Blue Devils" 45-22. In this game Johnny Thomas, the "Crabbers" push-shot star, dumped in 27 points to almost defeat the visitors singlehanded.

Granby was next on the Hampton schedule as the Comets almost met their match in the "fightin' Crabbers," eking out a 52-43 victory. The game was much closer than the 9 points show, as Hampton was pushing the future State Champs all the way. With this game past, the "Crabbers" were known to be the only team in the state to really battle the "Comets."

The Richmond trip popped up and the "Crabbers" were on their way to give the Hopewell five their second lacing of the season by them, 58-28, a more decisive victory than the first.

Thomas Jefferson was next on the trip and avenged their earlier defeat by edging the "Crabbers" 37-34. Trailing by a very large margin at the half, the "last-half" Hampton team almost pulled the game out of the fire by outscoring the "Presidents" 21-9 after intermission.

Still seeking their first conference victory in Eastern play, the "Crabbers" journeyed to Maury only to be denied by losing 44-34. The Hampton team was hot in pursuit of the "Commodores" when the game ended.

Breaking a losing streak, the Langley Officers again fell before the "Crabtown" boys 35-31 in the spacious Langley Field gym. Continuing their winning ways then, the "Crabbers" annexed their first conference victory with an overwhelming score of 76-30 over the "Pilot's" of Norview.

Woodrow Wilson opened and also closed out the '46-47 basketball schedule of the "Crabbers". Playing on the large Wilson gym, the "President's" proved too much for Hampton as they won 52-39.

Although the season was nothing exeptional, the "Crabbers" showed fight and spirit throughout the trying campaign and turned in a fairly sucessful record.

SPORT SHORTS

The 1946 edition of the Hampton football team was considered by a great many followers of "Crabber" grid teams as the best the school has turned out in a decade. The season started with several lettermen and a host of newcomers and prospects were fairly bright. Through hard work, Coach Eason turned the boys into a fighting, winning combination that enjoyed a very successful season.

Winning All-State honors for the "Crabbers" in the past grid campaign were Co-captain Bob Carroll, who finished his fourth year at end, and Calvin "Monk" Rhea, a first year man at guard. Bobby, a senior, was an honorable mention All-Stater last year. Another honor for Bobby was his All-Southern nomination. For Calvin, it was his first year in Hampton togs and winning honors in his initial year shows his gridiron prowess. Good luck Calvin, in your future football years!

Jack "Sooky" Hill failed to make the All-State honor squad the past season by a mere vote, but was picked for honorable mention, honors for the third year in a row. "Sooky" has finished a brilliant football career of four years at Hampton. He was voted the most valuable player on the squad by his teammates the past season.

The "Crabbers" boasted one of the star ball carriers and passers in the state in Johnny "Slingshot" Thomas. Johnny crossed the opponents goal line fifteen times to be one of the state's leading scorers and his passes accounted for ten more touchdowns. The "Crabbers" great success was due largely to his outstanding play.

The lights on Darling Memorial Field for night games has increased the attendance of the contests by nearly 100%. Boasting about the highest attendance for high schools in the state, the "Crabbers" home crowds were the largest in school history.

Leading the 1947 "Crabbers" will be Co-captains elect, Calvin Rhea and Dick Carneal. Prospects look bright for the coming campaign with a number of lettermen returning and a host of newcomers expected to be on hand, also. The battle cry for the coming season is "Newport News, Look out!!" Best of luck fellows, everyone of you graduating teammates may not be in there "fightin'" with you side by side, but spiritually they will be. "Go get 'em gang!"

The basketball season was pretty dismal after such a fine football year. Although the "Crabbers" record of six wins and nine losses isn't the best, the boys were in there giving it all they had in true Hampton fight and spirit! Lack of experience and ineligibility were a thorn in the side of the Eason-coached five.

The "Crabberettes", girls basketball team, coached by Miss Martha Holloway enjoyed a better than average season with a record of four wins and three losses. The team was under the able leadership of Co-captains Bowen and Moore.

Mary Bryan Collier was head-cheerleader of the H. H. S. cheering squad. The girls showed plenty of pep and spirit and did much to raise the school spirit by staging pep rallies and bon-fires before all the "Crabbers" football game. At out-of-town games, one would always find the girls there and helping to cheer the team when the going was rough.

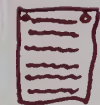

Coach Eason entered a track team in the University of North Carolina Invitational Meet at Chapel Hill which turned in an excellent showing, although it won no honors. The meet was staged indoors and it was the first time the boys had ever run on the "boards". Bobby Leonard, crack distance man, was a finalist and crossed the line sixth in the 1000 yard run. Billy Shannon, sprinter, was a finalist and came in fifth in the sixty yard dash. Other entries representing H. H. S. were Gilbert Firth and Bill Barham.

What to do after graduation

Choosing the right career to follow after high school days are over is a problem faced sooner or later by every girl in the senior class.

For many past graduates, telephone work has offered most of the things a girl looks for when seeking a place in the world: pleasant associates . . . clean, wholesome surroundings . . . high pay . . . regular increases and opportunities for advancement . . . paid vacations . . . the knowledge that the work itself is important and interesting.

There are opportunities in telephone work after graduation.

The telephone company is "a friendly place to work."
